U. S. CATHOLIC MISSION ASSOCIATION

The United States Catholic Mission Association

PURPOSE AND SPIRIT

The USCMA is a voluntary association of individuals and organizations for whom the missionary presence of the universal Church is of central importance. It is a non-profit, religious, educational and charitable organization which exists to promote global mission. Its primary emphasis is on cross-cultural evangelization and the promotion of international justice and peace.

Striving to become a prophetic community of mutual service and to make the Gospel alive, the Association challenges its members to support one another in a continually evolving understanding of the needs of God's people. In order to promote God's reign of justice and love in our world, members hold a "preferential option for the poor," to which the universal missionary Church has pledged itself.

Mindful of the rich diversity of gifts and talents among all the members, and their potential for enhancing the effectiveness of the various ministries in which they are engaged, the Association fosters collaboration with all persons of good will who share its commitment in service to human promotion, justice, and peace, in the context of cross-cultural evangelization. The spirit of the USCMA is a spirit of mutual service; the style of decision-making is consensual and collegial.

In general, the USCMA, working together with those who are interested in mission, serves its membership as motivator, animator, and catalyst, by presenting the latest developments in mission theology and methodology, and keeping abreast of the world-wide trends that would affect the future of mission.

HISTORY

The U.S. Catholic Mission Association was approved in its present mode at the Annual Assembly of the Board of Directors, in May 1982. It is linked historically to the Mission Secretariat, which served the mission-sending groups for over twenty years, and to the U.S. Catholic Mission Council, which functioned for some twelve years, until September 1981. For people who are interested in and involved with mission, the USCMA provides a unifying locus for the sharing of ideas, of emerging trends, and of new developments in mission. It fosters the preparation of missionaries under all aspects, and promotes programs of re-entry for missionaries on furlough. It provides a dimension of international social justice in programs of education for mission. It stimulates new modes of mission, such as reverse mission, mutuality of mission, and ecumenical mission. Finally, it fosters dialogue among all the forces in mission on how best to serve the U.S. Church, in order to help it become more universal and more open to the rest of the Churches and of the world.

MEMBERSHIP

Although the Association is an organization of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, it is open to persons beyond those borders, both geographically and confessionally. It also seeks to foster a broader ecumenism through promotion of inter-religious dialogue and exploration of genuinely new attitudes towards other religious believers. The members can expect to find in the Mission Association a place for interaction with others of like concerns and a forum for sharing of ideas. These benefits will be derived especially from the Annual Meeting of all members of the Association. From time to time, there will be special meetings within the Association of regional groups, concerning topics important to their concerns. In March of 1983, a National Mission Congress was sponsored by the Association, which had as its purpose, to reach beyond the membership and serve as a source of animation for the wider Church. In October of 1987, an Ecumenical Mission Consultation was held at Mercy Center in Madison, Connecticut, with members of the Protestant, Catholic, Evangelical, and Orthodox traditions, to explore the possibilities of doing evangelization together.

ORGANIZATION

The Board of Directors of the U.S. Catholic Mission Association is composed of not fewer than seven and not more than fifteen members, elected by the membership at their Annual Meeting. Their function is to serve the Association for a period of three years. The Board meets at least twice every year. Officers of the Association are the President, the Vice-President, and the Secretary-Treasurer, who are elected by and from the Board of Directors for a period of three years.

The Executive Committee is composed of the President and Vice-President of the Mission Association plus two at-large Directors chosen by the Board, whose function is to implement the business of the Association between Board Meetings.

Ad Hoc Committees also serve the various needs of the Mission Association. The members can be chosen from and/or outside the membership.

The Annual Meeting of USCMA members for the purpose of conducting business is ordinarily held in conjunction with a General Conference, open to all persons interested in global mission. Regional Meetings are also held.

ACTIVITIES

General activities of the Mission Association are typical of organizations of its kind. Special activities at the present time include the following:

Programs

Washington Mission Seminars. Two-week seminars are held for both missioners on furlough and new missioners. Mutual sharing, theological and pastoral renewal, and reanimation for mission work are provided.

Catholic Forum on China. CFC is a loose coalition of individuals and representatives of religious congregations with expertise, interest and openness regarding contemporary China. CFC is a point of contact in North America for China-Catholic relations. It is a vehicle for sharing information and reflection about China, particularly events of the Catholic Church in China, with North American audiences.

International Justice Network. The IJN is a group of men and women committed to serving as a conduit for voices of Third World people in their struggle for justice and peace. It encourages and promotes responses from the membership and from their constituencies to short and long term situations of injustice.

Consultations. The Association brings together representatives of mission-sending groups and agencies to confer on the experiences of American missionaries in various countries and activities abroad, and to consider their implications for the U.S. Church.

Seminars and Meetings. The Association sponsors or co-sponsors seminars and meetings on current topics relating to the mission of the Church.

Laity in Cross-Cultural Mission. Ongoing study and consultation with organizations sponsoring lay missionaries are preparatory to publication in October 1988 of a Handbook for Laity in Mission. This booklet will include guidelines, a comprehensive mission process, and a network for laity in mission.

Regional Meetings. One or two Regional Meetings are held annually, to update members and others interested in new trends in mission, and to address the needs of the membership at the regional level.

Ecumenism. The USCMA works very closely with the Mission Coordinators of the other Christian Churches and is also in contact with various other non-Catholic organizations and groups, in order to seek a common ground for doing mission.

PUBLICATIONS

Mission Intercom. A newsletter published ten times a year, containing items of mission interest gleaned from a broad spectrum of publications and other sources of information from around the world.

Mission Handbook. An annual publication containing statistics drawn from the Association's data bank of U.S. Catholic personnel doing missionary work abroad.

Mission Institutes. An annual compilation of available workshops and seminars of interest to new or furloughed missioners, ecumenical in scope.

PART II

U. S. CATHOLIC MISSION INVENTORY

GUIDELINES TO PRESENTATION

The following 1988 tabulation of the United States Catholic missionaries serving abroad has been compiled by the U.S. Catholic Mission Association from data gathered from many sources. For each of the missionaries listed in these tables, the Association has obtained a data-form of basic information. The tables have been compiled from these individual forms, and not from totals given by mission-sending groups, or home dioceses, or mission fields. They are, therefore, as reliable as the most diligent effort can make them and as the constant changes in personnel will allow. Some comment, however, on each of the terms in the title of these tables is necessary

The tables list only U.S. missionaries, which means those who are, or have been United States citizens by birth or naturalization. Those who have taken out citizenship in their country of mission service are still listed here as missionaries from the United States. On the other hand, citizens of other countries serving as members of mission-sending groups headquartered in the U.S., are not listed. As an example, there are numerous Maryknoll sisters serving abroad, often in countries other than their homeland who are not U.S. citizens and therefore are not listed here among the Maryknoll sisters serving as U.S. Catholic missionaries abroad. This policy helps to prevent overlapping when the various national mission councils publish their tabulations. It must be remembered, however, that mission-sending groups which, in the tables, appear to have only very few members in a given mission field, may have many more who are not of U.S. citizenship.

The tables bear the heading U.S. Catholic missionaries. This includes all those Catholics who are sponsored by Catholic mission-sending agencies. even if they work for projects not sponsored by the Catholic Church.

The term missionaries is used in its generally accepted sense; it includes not only those engaged in the primary and subsequent stages of evangelization, but also those in the closely related areas of community service and development.

The term serving ordinarily stands for service over a long period of years, or for life. While on the other hand, some groups, particularly many groups of lay volunteers, provide short-term service, only those are included in these statistics who serve for a minimum of one year.

The term abroad means "outside of the 48 contiguous States." The tabulation does not include, therefore, the hundreds of "home missioners" working in sections of our country in situations comparable to any that could be found in other lands. In general, the list of "mission countries" is that followed in two decades of such data-gathering by the former Mission Secretariat and the National Office of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Society of St. James the Apostle;

Priest Associates of the Maryknoll Fathers

Sixty of the diocesan priests in overseas assignments are members of the Missionary Society of St. James the Apostle, founded by Richard Cardinal Cushing in 1958. Director of the St. James Society is Monsignor John J. Moriarty. Headquarters are located at 24 Clark Street, Boston, Massachusetts. Another twenty-nine diocesan priests are working in missions overseas as Priest Associates of the Maryknoll Fathers.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

Not included in the statistics in this Handbook are the 900 overseas workers of the 1100-member staff of the Catholic Relief Services, the official overseas relief and development agency of the American Bishops. Members are engaged in programs of relief, human development, refugee services, and disaster aid in more than 70 countries, cooperating with both Catholic and Protestant missionaries in providing assistance for programs of health and welfare.
